PHUSION BAND MEMBER BIOS

Michael Hickey

As a live and studio session guitarist, singer/songwriter and musical director, Michael Hickey has made countless appearances on stage in a variety of different capacities and has produced, played on and contributed to album projects for many local and overseas artists. He has also featured on album launch tours throughout various cities around Australia and the USA. Michael is comfortable in any musical environment and can contribute generously to any musical genre including Blues, Rock, RnB, Funk and Top 40. Michael has been actively contributing to the live music scene for two decades and is a huge asset to any musical environment.

Jeremy Cook

Jeremy Cook has been passionate about music and playing keyboards from a very early age and has spent his entire life enveloped in music. He is an extremely qualified musician and has been involved in the live music scene for many years. Since graduating from the Queensland Conservatorium at age 21, Jeremy has produced and recorded on many albums for local and interstate artists. Jeremy has an extensive range of influences which enables him to cover a broad spectrum of styles and genres. Not only is he a master on keys, he also has a powerhouse voice with an amazing range and can sing virtually anything from rock standards to funk classics.

Andrew Ewart

Andrew Ewart is a highly sought after bassist and is very active in the live music scene. At the age of 18, Andrew got serious about developing a music career and landed a contract at World Expo '88 as a musician and general entertainer and secured a full-time contract at Contiki Whitsunday Resort on Long Island with his band after Expo ended. Andrew then moved to Canberra and over a fifteen year period, played with many local high profile bands. Now based on the Gold Coast, Andrew has played at countless venues and shows throughout the Brisbane, South East Queensland and Northern NSW music circuits. He provides a solid and very funky "bottom end" and has the experience and dexterity to add to any musical performance.

Cvitan Barac

Gold Coast based Cvitan Barac is an exceptionally talented and versatile drummer who has gained years of experience playing in a variety of scenarios and has covered multiple styles ranging from Rock, Blues, Jazz, Swing, Funk, Country to Latin and Drumlines. Holding a Bachelor of Music, Cvitan has been in high demand as a drummer for many years. Working regularly up and down the East Coast of Queensland and Northern NSW, he has played with countless Bands, Artists, Stage Productions, Festivals and Musicals. With an exceptional sense of timing and feel, Cvitan is the backbone of the Phusion groove.
